

Copenhagen, October 9-10, 1999

Workshop: October 11-13

Saturday October 9th

Interaction among the Maya and their Neighbors

- 8.00-9.00: Registration
9.00: Welcome by the Dean of the Faculty of Humanities John Kuhlmann Madsen
- 9.05-10.15: Karl Taube (University of California, Riverside):
Teotihuacan and the Classic Maya: Recent Investigations of Temple 16 at Copan, Honduras
- 9.45-10.15: Discussion
- 10.15-11.00: Nikolai Grube (University of Texas, Austin):
The Caretakers of the Hu'n: The Temple XIX Inscriptions from Palenque and what they say about Subordinate Lords
- 11.00-11.30: Discussion
- 11.30-11.45: Break
- 11.45-12.30: James E. Brady (California State University) and Jesper Nielsen (Kobenhavns Universitet):
The Couple in the Cave: Origin Iconography on a Ceramic Vessel from Los Naranjos, Honduras
- 12.30-13.00: Discussion
- 13.00-15.00: Lunch
- 15.00-15.30: Maria Hammershoy and Toke Sellner (Kobenhavns Universitet):
The Glyph for ch'e:n 'Cave'
- 15.30-16.00: Elisabeth Wagner (Universität Bonn):
Knots, Burial Bundles and the Lord of the Dead

Sunday October 10th

Maya Epigraphy: Past and Future

- 9.00-9.45: Ian Graham (Peabody Museum, University of Harvard):
Finding Some Inscriptions and Loosing Others
- 9.45-10.15: Discussion
- 10.15-11.00: Stephen Houston and John Robertson (Brigham Young University):
Classic Mayan Nouns and Adjectives
- 11.00-11.30: Discussion
- 11.30-11.45: Break
- 11.45-12.30: Alfonso Lacadena (Universidad Complutense, Madrid):
Maya Paleography
- 12.30-13.00: Discussion
- 13.00-15.00: Lunch
- 15.00-15.30: Peter Mathews (La Trobe University):
A History of the Inscriptions of Palenque
- 15.30-16.00: Erik Boot (Rijksuniversiteit Leyden):
The Decipherment of the Inscriptions at Chich'en Itzá, Yucatán, Mexico: Past, Present, and Future
- 16.00-16.30: Break
- 16.30-17.00: Bodil Liljefors (Lunds Universitet):
The Books of Chilam Balam: a Continuing Link between Past and Future
- 17.00-17.30: Søren Wichmann (Københavns Universitet) and Alfonso Lacadena (Universidad Complutense, Madrid):
More Evidence for the Distribution of Ch'olan Dialects in the Classic Period